THE BIG X TONIGHT AT BUTLER THEATER

IF YOU CAN'T GET A SEAT AT THE FIRST SHOW, WAIT FOR THE SECOND

A little tot, who always went with her mother to the movies, exclaimed as the curtain rolled up and the announcement was made:

"Oh, mama, we have Francis X. Bushman with us tonight."

"Why, how do you know, when you can't read yet?" the mother asked.

"Oh, that's easy, for I know the big 'X' from my building blocks."

Well, theatergoers of Tonopah, we really have the only and original Francis X. tonight and in one of his master efforts, "The Silent Voice." It may be impossible to get a seat for the first show, but it will be repeated and is well worth waiting for.

WEST END COMPANY OPTIONS GOLD PEN

PROPERTY IN RAND DISTRICT IS SAMPLED BY LOCAL EXPERTS

The Golden Pen mine of the Rand district, which has created a mining sensation with a production of ore to the value of $50,000, as shown by the smelter returns, in the past ten months and with only two men working the mine with primitive methods, seems to be the rich prize for which the big mining interests of the state are contending, says the Western Nevada Miner. The West End company of Tonopah has an option on the property. Warren Richardson and Frank Boodleman of Tonopah, representing the West End, are sampling the property and it will shortly be known whether or not the deal will be closed.

In case the West End company takes over the Golden Pen property, which conservative mining engineers declare has at least half a million dollars in ore blocked out, it will be the biggest boost that the Rand district has ever had and will mean an addition of several hundred miners to the camp. Trenching on the surface has disclosed vein No. 2 on the Golden Pen, which is higher up the hill than vein No. 1 from which the owners, Messrs. Saturno and Ferretto have been extracting their high grade ore. The vein has been proven for a distance of 300 feet and shows values of from $50 to $1400 per ton. Mining engineers who have been on the ground the past few days report vein No. 2 as looking even better than vein No. 1, and is another convincing proof of the greatness of Rand as a gold camp.

Another shipment of ore is now being sacked and from what can be learned it promises to discount the recent sensational shipment made via Luning.

ONE POINT JINX ON TONOPAH LINGERS

BISHOP WINS PRETTY GAME BY THE NARROWEST OF MARGIN

The one point jinx seems to have roosted on the high school flag pole. In the game with Bishop Union high school Saturday, the second with a rival school, the local boys were forced to acknowledge the smaller part of a 7 to 6 score. The game itself was a thrilling exhibition of sheer weight against speed and superior tactics, with weight the favorite.

For Bishop, Captain Thorington, the slant fullback, was the most dangerous man Tonopah had to contend with. His line backs were furious and disastrous. It was he who scored the first touchdown just after the referee's whistle started the game. The early score seemed to take a great deal of the starch out of the Tonopah team and roosters but with great efforts the local lads played a good clean defensive game, then brilliant offensive work that gave them the ball close to Bishop's line at the start of the second period. Tonopah's backs made the most of the situation. First Zeni improved the position, then Gilbert sliced enough from the distance to allow Pollard to carry the ball over on the third down.

The second half saw no score. Desperate efforts by Bishop saved a Tonopah score at the end of the third quarter, and it required a similar rally just before the final gun for Tonopah to stop Bishop.

Zeni proved the star of the game by his brilliant runs through Bishop's loose defense. In forward passing Zeni also demonstrated his worth, making long and difficult passes with great accuracy. O'Connell's work at end was equally conspicuous, and Captain Murphy came in for his share of the rosters' praise. Pollard, upon making his touchdown, was given an ovation.

A large and enthusiastic crowd saw the game. M. J. Conover refereed, R. E. Mealey, a Bishop professor, was on the field with him, Ellsworth Bennett and Austin James handled the watches and William Cuddy acted as head linesman.

After the game the high school girls gave the combined teams and officials a chicken dinner. The table was effectively decorated with the school colors and flowers in profusion. Captain Joe Murphy presided.

GRAND OPENING AT THE ORIGINAL PACKAGE

The Original Package saloon, one of the landmarks of Tonopah in the early days, when it was headquarters for the Alaska bunch, has been reopened by its new proprietor, Charles Enquist. The grand opening took place Saturday evening and it was most certainly a success. It was a case of standing room only and little of that. One of the pleasant features was the sending of two immense bouquets of American Beauty roses by Messrs. Taylor & Ableman of the Tonopah club. Other evidences of good fellowship and the lack of feeling of business rivalry were displayed. Mr. Enquist is one of the substantial citizens of Tonopah and a saloon man of many years' standing. He is wished well by all his friends and they are legion.

TWIN FALLS FARMER MEETS DEATH HERE

W. W. MICKELWAIT CONTRACTS PNEUMONIA WHILE ON WAY TO THE COAST

After suffering from pneumonia for nine days, W. W. Mickelwait died yesterday morning at 9 o'clock in the Nye county hospital, where he was a private patient. He was about fifty years of age and was a resident of Twin Falls, Idaho. In company with his wife and sons, Dean and Howell, he arrived here by auto Friday a week ago, suffering from a severe cold and he was taken to the hospital, his family remaining with him. There were four other autos in the party. All were bound for Los Angeles and thence to the Panama-Pacific exposition.

Mr. Mickelwait's condition grew rapidly worse and his oldest son, Claude, came by train. The people of Tonopah did everything possible for Mr. Mickelwait and his family. The deceased was a prosperous farmer of Twin Falls. Yesterday the sons, Claude and Dean, left for Idaho by train and this morning Mrs. Mickelwait and Lowell left by train with the body. The funeral services will be held Wednesday at Twin Falls.

SERVICES YESTERDAY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

TWO INTERESTING AND HELPFUL DISCOURSES BY REV. R. W. BAYLESS

The subject yesterday morning at the Presbyterian church was the 14th verse of the 25th Psalm, "The secret of Jehovah is with them that fear him." The principal thought was that God reveals himself to those who seek to do His will. In the evening the text was taken from Jeremiah 6:16: "Keeping old paths," meaning by that not necessarily the paths our fathers trod, but paths of righteousness even though of progress.

Mr. Kanouse sang a solo, "The Lord Hath Redeemed Them, O Israel." It was beautifully rendered.

TONOPAH MINING MEN LOOKING FOR MINES

R. W. Skelton and Frank Davis, two of the well-known mining men of central Nevada, came to Austin the first of the week to look into the mining situation and spent the week visiting various properties tributary to Austin. Mr. Skelton was one of the leading operators at Tonopah, Manhattan and Round Mountain in the early days of those camps and still is of the opinion that central Nevada is the field for great things in mining, says the Reese River Reveille.

Mr. Davis has to his credit the opening up of the Cinnabar districts near Lone and was one of the discoverers of National, in Humboldt county.

ACTIVITY IN WHITE CAPS

Stock in the Dexter-White Caps Mining company is now in active demand, due to the fact that the reorganized company now sees the way clear to remove the indebtedness and resume work on a large scale. It now has milling facilities and a process has been developed for the treatment of the ore on a closer basis than before. The new company will shortly announce its plans, and they are promised to mean much, not merely for the shareholders, but for all the people in Manhattan.

AMUSEMENTS

BUTLER THEATER

The program at the Butler this evening will consist of Pathe Weekly, full of interesting events from all over the world, and a Metro feature, "The Silent Voice," with Francis X. Bushman and Marguerate Clark, who are probably known to more motion picture lovers than any pair of stars now being shown upon the screen.

Also in this production is Frank Bacon, one of the best known character actors in the legitimate, who makes his debut in this picture. "The Silent Voice" is from the pen of Jules Eckert Goodman, and was the vehicle which Otto Skinner used to display his distinguished dramatic talents upon the legitimate stage at the Liberty theater in New York last season.

In the six-act picturization of the original in which Mr. Bushman is featured, the noted master of the silent drama appears in a role somewhat different from what his many admirers have been accustomed.

His powerful portrayal of the loving son, whose happiness affects everyone about him and whose disposition changes abruptly, when affliction seizes him, from a light-hearted and joyous person, to a skeptic and a cynic, will prove a revelation of his powers to those who have hitherto always seen him in the role of the romantic lover.

Mr. Bushman and Miss Snow are both great favorites to the Tonopah public. Tomorrow, the Paramount production, "The Unafraid," featuring Rita Jolivet, the celebrated French star, together with Theodore Roberts and House Peters.

THE CITY SCAVENGER.
Adv. Nov 5td

It is said that over 10,000,000 women in this country shop daily, 90 per cent of whom are influenced through advertising to buy a certain article or go to a certain store; hence when a small dealer tells you that advertising doesn't pay, you will find, nine times out of ten, that not only his advertising but his store methods are faulty. He is, very likely, a spasmodic advertiser. He is operating without any particular plan or policy. In short, he is a hot and cold proposition, pretty much like the old rooster in the snow, standing first on one foot, then on the other, trying to avoid getting cold feet, where if he used both feet at the same time, he would get to some place where there wasn't any snow. The advertiser who uses the Daily Bonanza consistently has insured his success.
